POST GAME QUOTES
Tampa Bay vs. Houston
August 22, 1981

TAMPA BAY COACH JOHN MCKAY: "It was awfully hot and some of the guys who got in there got tired."

"I was pleased with Ford except for the ball-handling. It seems there is a difference of opinion on the fumble. It's like being on a honeymoon, I will save my judgment until I see the films."

(Things he was pleased with) - "Hagins got deep, Tony Davis got deep, Charley Hannah got tired and went to the bathroom during the game."

We need to improve in all areas before we open with Minnesota."

Injuries - Hugh Green - heat exhaustion and cramps; George Yarno - slightly sprained ankle

HOUSTON COACH ED BILES: "We just got too far behind. We had the opportunities but didn't capitalize on them."

"The Bucs are a good aggressive football team. They just outplayed us.

(Reaves) - "The fact he was only scheduled to play a quarter and then he stepped in under those conditions - he did an outstanding job. He is well on his way to being a good quarterback. At this point it looks like he'll be our quarterback because of the injury situation.

(Nielsen) - "We don't know the status of his injury at this time." Reported to be a sprained right shoulder. "We won't know for a day or two on that."

"I was very disappointed in the way our defense football team played. They just did not pick up the slack.

(Capece) - "I think he has the potential to be a kicker in the NFL. But he didn't play too well tonight, you can't miss a 32-yarder.

BUC SHOTS - Isaac Hagins 66-yard reception tied the Buccaneer preseason record for longest pass reception with another 66-yard reception (touchdown) made by Hagins on a pass from Randy Hedberg at Buffalo in 1977. Hagins caught a 61-yard touchdown pass from Jerry Eckwood against Houston in last season's preseason game.

Tonight's crowd of 64,734 was the Bucs' third straight over 60,000 this preseason. Preseason attendance was 195,073 (avg. of 65,024)

John Reaves total of 236 yards passing was the second highest preseason individual passing total ever against the Bucs. He holds the record of 272 for Cincinnati in 1976.

The Bucs 264 yards passing was the most by the team ever in preseason play (247 vs. Miami in 1979).
